

XM provides a variety unparaell to anything available on FM or AM in any market. The ability to always be able to get traffic or weather for any area is a great benefit because although I am in the NY METro Area there are times the other locations come in handy for business or other things. I think the NAP